Capt. W. N. Foster et. al. F. G.

Sir!

In compliance with Genl Order No 51 I reported to you more than three weeks ago, but have not yet received an answer. I understood the order, as though the disabled soldiers were to report by letter, if I was mistaken, you will please let me know, If not I can not see why it was not answered, excepting the case, that my letter was lost. Therefore I think it proper to report a second time: I belong to Co F, 1st Texas Vols of Infantry. I was wounded by a gunshot, which struck about six inches below the knee of my right leg, broke the Tibula, and after tearing the main sinew that runs from the heel up to the calf of the leg came out about seven inches above the heel. A good many pieces of bone mattered out, I lay in bed for six months, before I could take to a pair of crutches, I am somewhat stiffened and very weak in that leg, I cannot walk far, nor can I stand riding more than a day or two. My occupation before the war was a little of everything, I went to school untill I was sixteen, and then kept my fathers store most of the time, untill I was eighteen when I joined the army in 1861. I went to Houston last winter, and sought employment in the Commissary Department, but not being able (rather not having brass enough) to answer this question in the affirmative: Are you a number one bookkeeper? I was even refused an examination, (which, very probably would have hoisted one of his ablebodies) and told, that my answer was sufficient proof of my incompetency, and then he (the Chief of Commissary) said he could not trouble himself any longer about me. Enraged in consequence of this behaviour towards me, I went home, resolved to have no more to do with any of the Commissary, Quartermaster or Cotton Departments, and to stay at home, where my father has to support me, because I can not make my own living, and now I assure you sir, that I have nothing to spend for nothing by going down to Houston in vain.

W. N. Foster

Hoping that you will soon direct me what to do, I remain

S. Engelking private in First Texas Regt of Vol. Company F, is under my treatment since the 22nd of April. The Tibula of his right leg having been broken and mangled by a gunshot, he is affected at present with Necrosis of that bone, complicated with stiffness of the foot and knee joints. C. 100 1st St. N. W.

Mr. K. [illegible]

Sir!

In compliance with Genl. Order No 51 I report to you. My name is G. Engelking. I belong to Co. F, 1st Texas Infantry of Vol. I live in Millheim, Austin County. I was wounded by a gunshot which entered about six inches below the knee of my right leg, broke the Fibula, and after tearing the main sinew, that runs up from the heel to the calf of the leg came out about seven inches above the heel. A good many pieces of bone mattered out, am somewhat stiffened and very weak in that leg, I can not walk far, nor can I stand riding more than a day or two. My occupation before the war was a little of every thing, I went to school untill I was sixteen, and then kept my fathers store most of the time untill I was eighteen when I joined the army in 1861. I went to Houston last winter and sought employment in the Commissariat Department, but not being able to answer this question in the affirmative: Are you a number one bookkeeper? I was even refused an examination, and addressed most ungentlemanly by the Chief Commissary himself. I then went home. I would not like to be humbugged a second time, and I assure you Sir, that I have nothing to

The figure consists of two separate line graphs. Both graphs have 'Rate of reaction' on the vertical y-axis and 'Temperature' on the horizontal x-axis. The left graph shows a curve that starts at a low rate at low temperatures and rises very steeply as temperature increases, indicating a high activation energy. The right graph shows a similar curve, but it rises much more gradually with temperature, indicating a lower activation energy.

The 1st Regiment Texas Infantry was first organized as a battalion of eight companies under Lieut. Col. Wigfall and known in the field as the 1st Battalion Texas Infantry. It was increased to a regiment by the addition of three companies about August, 1861, and known in the field as the 2d Regiment Texas Infantry. (1st) Company K was an Alabama company which was transferred to the 6th Battalion Alabama Infantry about March 2, 1862, and redesignated as Company D. (2d) Company K was originally an independent company, which was attached to this regiment about April 14, 1862, and Company M was organized May 3, 1862.

Sir

Sir

I have the honor to respectfully request Surgeons Certificate to transfer from the Texas Regt. Robertsons Brigade, Hood's Div. to the Department of Texas, on the following reasons, I have been in every engagement in which my unit has taken part, from the battle "West Point" May 7th 62 to the battle of "Christiana" Sept 19th 63 inclusive. Except the battle of "Gaines Farm" June 3rd 62. which time I was absent on Surgeons Certificate on duty only. Since Sept 24th 63. I have been suffering from living disease. I feel confident from acquaintance I have with the Climate of Texas, that the change would be beneficial to my health.
My Col. (Bailey) is in Command of the Post at Houston Texas. I feel assured that if there is a vacancy in his department that he would cheerfully assign me to it, I am desirous of remaining in the service, and for this very important reason I respectfully request to be transferred & assigned to duty in his department. I am very respectfully Your Obedt Servant
W. P. Forsyth Adj't

on which to ground an application for transfer, to another department of the Army. We certify that we have carefully examined this officer & find that he has Pleurisy & Pulmonary Accompanied with considerable irritation of the air passages.

Being Asses. to a band during active service, in the field, he is of the opinion, based on former experience & familiarity with the climate of Texas, that his health would be sustained, if transferred to duty in that State.

For these considerations & reasons that his health is declining here, we unhesitatingly recommend that his application be favorably sustained.

It was increased to a regiment by the addition of three companies about August, 1861, and known in the field as the 1st Regiment Texas Infantry. Company K was an Alabama company which was transferred to the 5th Battalion Alabama Infantry about March 3, 1862, and organized as Company B. (2d). Company K was originally an independent company which was attached to this regiment about April 24, 1862, and Company M was organized May 3, 1862.

The 1st Regiment Texas Infantry was first organized as a battalion of eight companies under Lieut. Col. Wigfall and known in the field as the 1st Battalion Texas Infantry. It was increased to a regiment by the addition of three companies about August, 1862, and known in the field as the 2d Regiment Texas Infantry.
Company K was an Alabama company which was transferred from the 5th Battalion Alabama Infantry about March 2, 1863, and known as Company D. (2d) Company K was originally an independent company which was attached to this regiment about April 22, 1862, and Company M was organized May 5, 1862.

The 1st Regiment Texas Infantry was first organized as a battalion of eight companies under Lieut. Col. Wigfall and known in the field as the 1st Battalion Texas Infantry. It was increased to a regiment by the addition of three companies about August, 1861, and known in the field as the 2d Regiment Texas Infantry. (1st) Company K was an Alabama company which was transferred to the 6th Battalion Alabama Infantry about March 2, 1862, and redesignated as Company D. (2d) Company K was originally an independent company which was attached to this regiment about April 14, 1862, and Company M was organized May 2, 1862.

The 1st Regiment Texas Infantry was first organized as a bat-
the field as the 1st Battalion Texas Infantry. It was increased to a regiment by the addition of three companies about August, 1861, and known in the field as the 2d Regiment Texas Infantry.
The Company K was an Alabama company which was transferred to the 1st Battalion Alabama Infantry about March 1, 1862, and assigned as Company D. (2d) Company K was originally an independent company which was attached to this Regiment about April 14, 1862, and Company K was organized May 1, 1862.
